'Betcha we can. . .'

The clock slowly ticked away for Stacey and Barney Reno yesterday as they attempted to play ping-pong for 24 hours straight on a bet with their father. In the garage of their Lucille Street home in Livermore, Stacey and Barney were allowed only six five - minute breaks and four ping - pong balls in the endurance test. Scheduled to conclude the contest at 10 p.m. last night, the two Livermore High School students had already gone through two balls yesterday afternoon, one lost under the heel of Barney's boot. The world singles record currently listed at 80 hours and is in no danger, Stacey assured everyone. The bet? $5 each.

Pleasanton enters the era

Taking the myth and magic out of an EIR

PLEASANTON — The ad - hoc citizens committee which last week requested a full - blown Environmental Impact Report on a future road on the city's north side was the second group of citzens in recent times to request an EIR on a proposed project.

It's a sign that the city has entered the EIR era, and this is as good a time as any to try to demystify the process of an EIR, in what cases city managers say they are not needed, and determine just what kind of a tool they may be.

EIR's are the children of the California Environmental Quality Act, passed in 1970. The Legislature was concerned about the impact of development on the environment. Integral to that would was the requirement that planners had to take a thorough inventory of the environment, examining all possible primary and secondary impacts of development.

This brought a new breed of people into being, the environmental consultant specialists who hired out to developers.

The average EIR costs a develpoper approximately $6,000 in Pleasanton today, according to a planning department estimate.

The EIR's also have been costing the city something: staff time. In Pleasanton's case there has been some poetic justice because the staffer processing the EIR's for the city, Brian Swift, was hired through federal and state funds.

The city bills the developers for Swift's time, the effort he spends in coordinating information obtained from other agencies and similar paperwork.

The whole process was speeded up recently when the city adopted its environmental element for the general plan. The great amount of data in the environmental element can be incorporated into future EIR's, making the whole process speedier and reducing the billing costs to the developer, too.

The accumlated background of environmental information from the general plan element plus EIR's done in the past brings so much information to bear on some proposed projects, that the city manager can issue a negative declaration, that is, no EIR needs to be done, said Planning Director Robert Harris.

The city manager's negative declarations have been challenged twice in recent months. Elizabeth Hall felt than that an EIR was needed for the traffic impact from apartments proposed near her home on Vineyard Avenue.

The city council, which heard the protest on the negative declaration, heeded the staff's notice that a full - blown EIR with detailed information listing and gathering in many categories, was not needed for one single impact. The council promised a traffic study in the area, and Hall, who had not opposed the apartments per se, was satisfied that no EIR was required.

The recent protest of a negative declaration about the northside road centered around a citizens' ad - hoc committee's belief that earlier EIR's in the area did not answer the problem of traffic impact in the area.

Their protest will follow the procedural lines to the city council which will determine whether the protest should be upheld. It is scheduled for public hearing April 26.

Win, lose, they'll learn at Dublin Maid contest

DUBLIN — A former bellydancer, an aspiring fashion merchandiser, a young woman who loves to sing, and an admirer of Ann - Margret are among candidates for the 1976 Maid of Dublin.

Denise Arnold, Connie MacKay, Lori McNeil and Theresa Haynes are among ten young women vying for the Maid litle. The winner will be chosen at a dinner-dance at Sunol Golf Club Saturday, May 15.

But win or lose the women are convinced they will "learn a lot" and "have a lot of fun" during their candidacies.

Denny Arnold, 20, as she prefers to be called, said she will use the scholarship to go to airline school. Travel has always been her passion, and Denny hopes one day to become a stewardess.

She works currently as a PBX switchboard operator at the Port of Oakland, and her salary helps to maintain her family's household.

A former bellydancer, she confides some people misunderstand the art. "I've studied the history of bellydancing — and it's not a striptease or anything like that," Denny said.

Connie MacKay aspires to a career in fashion merchandising. A 17-year-old senior at Dublin High School, Connie hopes to attend Fashion Institute in San Francisco next fall.

She chose merchandising over fashion design because she likes to work with people. And as the Maid of Dublin, the $500 scholarship would help to defray the $3000 cost of the nine-month fashion course.

Connie dismissed suggestions that beauty contests are degrading to women.

"This is something that let's you say you're different from men. I'm a woman who enjoys being a woman," Connie said, "and this is something that makes it special to be a woman."

Lori McNeil will be 18 on Friday. She thinks becoming a Maid candidate will help her learn to deal with people in her chosen career — property management. She works now at Allied Brokers.

"I love to sing, even though I'm not that good," said Lori.

"It's not true that beauty contests put women down," said Lori who watches the Miss America pageant every year. "Besides, I'm not much towards this women's lib thing."

Theresa Haynes, a 17 - year - old senior at Dublin High School who prefers being called Therpse, has always dreamed of becoming a dancer.

"Ever since first grade I've wanted to be a dancer, a singer. Not necessarily on the top, but close to the top," she said.

Not surprisingly, she most admires Ann-Margret, the sexy star of television and nightclubs.

"She has everything," Therese murmured.

Therese is a shy person, and says being the Maid of Dublin will be a "neat experience" for her.

Tomorrow: a talk with three more Maid of Dublin candidates.

Officials to follow Times' Murphy story

PLEASANTON — Both Alameda and Nevada Counties' District Attorneys offices as well as Livermore City Attorney Bob Logan have said they will follow up on Sunday's Times' story that posed serious questions to supervisor John D. Murphy's qualifications to have held office for the past three years.

A spokesman for the Alameda County Grand Jury said his office would "certainly look into" claims that Murphy took a homeowner's property tax exemption on a 60 acre, Nevada County estate while voting and holding office in Alameda County.

Both require claims of one's "principle place of residence," according to the state Attorney General's and Secretary of State's offices, and one can "legally reside" in only one county.

The grand jury representative said legal staff would be directed to look into any possible criminality in Murphy's claim of dual county residency.

A preliminary investigation would take about a week, he added.

Livermore City Attorney Bob Logan said he was very interested in The Times' report, but "won't do anything yet."

He will meet with attorney Mori Engel to discuss any effect the report may have on the city's suit against Alameda County.

Murphy voted in favor of a county general plan amendment that rezoned the Las Positas Valley to accomodate the proposed New Town development of Harlan Geldermann.

Logan said he did not think Livermore could file a civil suit claiming Murphy was not qualified to hold office. That litigation would be up to an individual taxpayer or taxpayer's organization, he added.

Nevada County District Attorney Ron MacMillen said his office was unaware of any claims of dual residency. He requested The Times' report and said he would look into, however.

In citing both Alameda and Nevada Counties as his legal residence, Murphy either claimed an unwarranted homeowner's property tax exemption on his Grass Valley home, or was unqualified to hold office as the valley's supervisorial representative.

Neither voter registration nor the property tax break automatically ties a person to legal residency in a particular county, however, several state attorneys have told The Times.

The courts weigh the persons' intentions; where most of their time was spent; driver's license and billing addresses, and a plethora of "objective factors."

While "each case is decided on its own," the claimant "can't have it both ways," state representatives said.

Newlin drafts district reply

Amador - Pleasanton schools superintendent Bruce Newlin is drafting a reply to an Amador Valley Secondary Educators Association petition that decries the Amador board contract proposal response as "creating an adversary relationship that is undesirable."

Newlin said Monday the board - administration statement will "hopefully clarify its position as regards the contract." Copies of the response were to be mailed out to certificated employees in the district.

AVSEA president Jim Carroll claims more than half of all certificated employees signed the petitions.

They take issue with the scope of negotiations issues allegedly covered by the board response. The communique also expresses concern with retaining of the 1975-76 salary schedule for next school year.

Under terms of the new collective bargaining law, negotiations on salary and benefits begin following recognition of a representative teacher group and submittal of a contract proposal by that group.

Marty Robbins scheduled

Fair plans firming up

County Fair board members will be updated on plans for this summer's annual Fair at tonight's Fair Association Board of Directors meeting.

Board members convene at 8 p.m. in the administration building on Pleasanton Avenue in Pleasanton.

The Fair Association has announced a major change in policy relating to advertising and public relations.

This year, all advertisement and news releases will emanate through Peter Bailey, assistant manager of the Fair. Directors believe the media could be better served by an "in-house" publicity director who would be more familiar with the tone of the Fair and be in a better position to answer questions raised by media representatives.

Other advantages of an in-house publicity director favor both the Fair and the media, according to the Fair Association.

For the Fair, the savings of the agency commission by being able to contract at the "local" rate is a plus, while to the media it means all ads placed will be supported by the Fair Association's own purchase order.

The Fair Association has also verified the appearance of two headline acts at this summer's Amphitheatre lineup of entertainment.

Marty Robbins, a nationally - known country - western singer, will appear on June 30 and July 1, supported by the popular Duane Dancers and Billy Barty as master of ceremonies. Barty is a midget who has been seen in numerous films and television shows.

Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass will open the second week, supported by ventriloquist Willie Tyler and his pal Lester. Paul Lennon will be MC.

Previously verified to appear are Spike Jones, Jr., with sounds reminiscent of his father, on June 28 and 29. He'll be supported by the Tony Urbano Marionettes, one of the most popular acts on last year's program, and Barty.

Flash Cadillac and the Continental Kids, with music of the 50s, supported by Tulara Lee and George, will headline the show on July 2 and 3.

Special 4th and 5th of July shows will feature impersonator and funny man George Kirby, backed by Tulara Lee, the Duane Dancers and Barty.

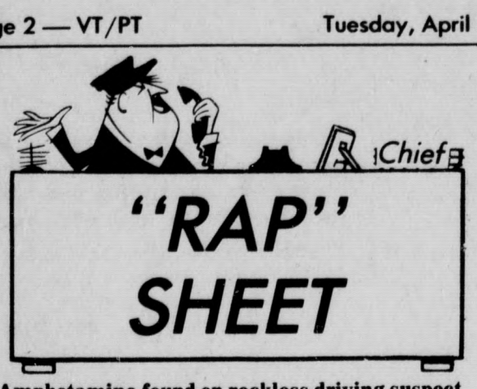
Also previously announced as playing the Amphitheatre are Scotty Plummer and his magic banjo, on July 8 and 9, supported by Willie Tyler and Lester, Anden's Poodles, and Paul Lennon.

Closing the Amphitheatre productions on July 10 and 11 will be the the popular family musical variety group, The Mugglestones, with Anden's Poodles and Lennon.

As an added feature, the Fair Association will present roving musical groups in the Bicentennial spirit. Slated to play about the buildings and grounds are Bob Mielke's Oakland A's dixieland group, Henry Clay's Banjo Band, one - manband Werner Hirzel.

For the kiddies, Charlie Allen returns for 15 days with his family of trained animals in the Petting Zoo, this year featuring a snow white camel, one of only five in the country.

Other attractions signed for Fair appearances are "Happy" the clown, Dave Twomey's Happytime Circus, and a destruction derby on Sunday, July 11 at 2 p.m. in the grandstand area.



Amphetamine found on reckless driving suspect

Ramon Felipe Benavidez of 731 Sandpiper Common was arrested after a chase through downtown streets and a struggle with police early Saturday.

Police Sgt. Larry Morrison observed a car driving erratically and activated his lights to pull the vehicle over. The driver ignored the lights and finally stopped when Morrison pulled alongside and forced him to the curb.

The suspect was described as "verbally hostile" and allegedly took a swing at Morrison as he exited his car. After a brief struggle, handcuffs were placed on the suspect just as back-up units arrived. Morrison was slightly injured after being kicked by the suspect.

Benavidez was transported to Valley Memorial Hospital for a blood test. Police performed a search of the suspect before the test, and allegedly found a baggie containing an unknown amount of amphetamine tablets.

Two injured after Lambaren Avenue party

LIVERMORE — Two people were injured and several windows were shattered after a fight erupted following a party on Lambaren Avenue Friday night.

Police reported trouble between two latino juveniles and two white males before midnight Friday. The fight ended after the juveniles left the area, but began again when they returned with car jacks, police reported.

Richard Ames told police that he, Jerry Barnett and a girl were getting into a car when the juveniles returned. Ames was reportedly hit in the left forearm with a shovel before the trio ran back into the house.

Barnett was hit with a blunt instrument in the right shoulder during the fight. A doctor at Valley Memorial Hospital said both men suffered "blunt trauma" from the attack.

Police are searching for two suspects, aged 15 and 16, for questioning in the case.

Burglars hit Firebrand Drive home late Friday

Curr told deputies he and his family returned home from the movies to find his front door wide open. Cocktail glasses and beer bottles were strewn about the house.

Missing items include a Lear Jet 8-track stereo player, Sankyo digital alarm clock, four bottles of Old Crow bourbon, and cash.

MTC fund bonanza won't help AC woes

Alameda County Bureau

OAKLAND — A $6 million shot in the arm approved Tuesday by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission's Grant Review Committee won't help the financially frought AC Transit system, officials said yesterday.

The funds, given preliminary approval last year in the MTC's "program of projects," already were calculated into the district's projected $6.5 million deficit for next year.

But a similar $1 million grant for the equally frought Bay Area Rapid Transit District "will balance BART's budget," another official said.

AC Transit district's $5,957,228 grant, earmarked "to maintain current levels and standards" of service, also may be used "to implement transit in communities without service."

But the valley's only chance at getting a portion of those Urban Mass Transportation Act (UMTA) funds will be through an agreement with the AC Transit district. Only urban communities of 200,000 or more population are eligible for the grants.

BART's $1 million includes $400,000 for operations, a fraction of its overall $65.5 million operating budget, and $600,000 for capital projects that "include development of hardware improvements to improve system reliability and service levels."

AC Transit officials last month warned MTC commissioners the district faces a $6.5 million deficit this coming year, $8.5 million the next year, and a cummulative $41 million by fiscal year 1979-80.

AC Transit officials are supporting MTC initiated legislation that would make the half-cent sales tax increment paid in the three BART counties permanent, but would channel 35 per cent of the revenues to AC and the San Francisco Muni.

BART is backing its own legislation that also would make the tax increment permanent, but would give all the funds to the rapid rail system.

Observers fear their Sacramento fight may sour legislators already weary of BART's financial woes.

El Charro builds Dublin restaurant

DUBLIN — El Charro Mexican Foods, Inc. hopes to open a Mexican restaurant in Dublin similar to its Lafayette El Charro Restaurant by this fall, it was announced yesterday.

Plans call for the restaurant to be built on a 2.99 acre site at 6643 Regional St., next to Liberty House.

Amfac Communities, Inc. has applied to the Alameda County Planning Commission to amend the parcel from M-l (light industrial) to C-2 (general commercial).

A public hearing on the application will be held Apr. 26 at 1:30 p.m. in the Alameda County Public Works Building, 399 Elmhurst St., Hayward.

Jerry Lamm of Valley Realty, speaking for El Charro Mexican Foods, Inc., said construction of the restaurant is contingent upon the zoning amendment and financing.

"The restaurant will be 5,000 square feet, with a sit - down bar and two eating areas. We plan to have an open courtyard in the middle, for indoor and outdoor dining," said Lamm.

Lamm said the Dublin restaurant would be a protoype of "what we'd like to do elsewhere." If it goes over well, Lamm said El Charro Mexican Foods, Inc. "will try more."

The group hopes to receive the zoning verdict within 90 to 120 days.

"We're going to try to get the verdict soon," Lamm said. "We have a sewer permit we hope to be able to utilize by July."

With approval and financing secured, Lamm said groundbreaking would take place in July. Construction should be completed within 90 days, around fall of this year.

It's okay — that bill is a government move

The deuce is back!

The $2 bill, once considered a jinx by racetrack bettors and a nuisance by the general public, has been revived and will be introduced today in banks across the nation.

The new bill will feature an obverse with the portrait of Thomas Jefferson flanked by serial numbers, date and the United States Treasury Department seal.

The reverse has been totally redesigned, scrapping the drawing of Jefferson's "Monticello" home in favor of a recreated signing of the Declaration of Independnce.

"Recreated" is the proper word, according to historians who found the number of signers portrayed on the bill six less than recorded in history.

Last printed in 1965, the bill never gained popular support simply because the public wouldn't use it, favoring the $1 note due to its familiarity.

Over the next year, more than 625 million of the new $2 bills will be printed , accounting for 15 per cent of the nation's currency production. The $1 bill, currently amounting to 60 per cent of bill production, would be reduced to 35 per cent after introduction of the $2 note.

Treasury officials estimate the savings in printing costs at $27 million, since fewer bills will have to be produced .

Today is Thomas Jefferson's 233rd birthday.

Speaker on displaced homemaker

'Don't agonize, organize!'

What would it be like to have your income suddenly cut off, to be without any realistic job prospects, to be ineligible for both social security and welfare benefits, and at the same time to have to cope with the emotional upset of either a family death or divorce.

A staggering number of America's older women know very well because they are living that reality. They are "displaced homemakers," among one million women, divorced or widowed, without minor children, under 60 years of age, and out of the labor force.

Six million married women under 60, potential displaced homemakers, if you will, are not in the work force.

Out of a concern for the lives of these women, and for the future of American women in general the Alliance for Displaced Homemakers was formed in 1975. Largely through the efforts of this group the Displaced Homemaker Act was passed in late 1975 by the State of California establishing a multipurpose center in Alameda County to serve the needs of the displaced homemaker.

The center will run for a two-year test period and is the only such center thus far in the country.

Laura Shields, national coordinator of the Displaced Homamakers Committee of the N.O.W. Task Force on Older Women and also a representative of the Alliance for Displaced Homemakers, will address the valley audience Thursday, April 15. She appears at Homestead Savings and Loan Association in Dublin at 7:30 p.m. at the meeting of the Tri-Valley Chapter of the National Organization for Women (N.O.W.).

A reception for Valerie Raymond, candidate for Alameda County Supervisor, will be held prior to the meeting from 7 to 7:30 p.m. Coffee will be served and child care provided from 6:30.

Self-styled a "late-blooming feminist," Ms. Shields is a 55-year-old widow. In the late Sixties she began work with her husband on a book dealing with Ireland's Abbey Theatre and the acting careers of her husband, Arthur Shields, and his brother, Barry Fitzgerald. After her husband's death in 1970, Laurie moved to Ireland and continued to work on the book.

Her mother's illness brought her back to the States. Needing supplemental income, she experienced the barriers many older women face if they try to re-enter the labor market after years of homemaking. The message she brings to women across the country is "Don't agonize, organize!"

Major hope for nation-wide expansion of services to the displaced homemaker lies in the "Equal Opportunity for Displaced Homemakers Act" now in the committees of the United States Senate and House (HR10272 and S2541) This federal legislation would provide multi-purpose centers to assist displaced homemakers in their move from dependency to self-sufficiency, and lay the basis for consideration of unemployment compensation and other benefits to these women.

Ms. Shields is currently on a cross-country tour to stir up grassroots action with the philosophy: "Where there's a bill there's a way."

She has already conducted workshops in major cities at Missouri, Minnesota, Kentucky, Alabama, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Lousiana, Georgia, Florida and South Carolina.

Look Younger For Springtime

Spring is the season when your spirits lift as you look forward to pleasant weather after a long, dreary winter. But springtime, with its sudden wind gusts and rapid changes of temperature can be hard on your skin, drying it so you can look older than you'd like. You can look older than necessary as early as your twenties, you know. Nature's own supply of moisture and oil has begun to slow down by then, so your skin becomes dryer and its radiant youthful appearance may start to slip away.

The past winter probably hasn't helped either. Look what you've put your skin through! You've gone between icy outdoor weather and drying indoor heat over and over again. That's like taking your face through all the climates of the world day after day. An honest look in your mirror will show you what winter has done to your skin.

Happily, you can begin to look your youngest for springtime almost before the first crocuses bloom. Join the younger-looking women of all ages from many parts of the world who share the secret of a remarkable beauty fluid that helps every woman look her youngest.

This unique beauty fluid, discovered by beauty connoisseurs, is known in the United States as Oil of Olay beauty lotion. The remarkable fluid works with nature in a mysterious way to ease away skin dryness so you can look just as young as you can.

Oil of Olay acts like your own natural moisture to work on dryness. Pure moisture and tropical oils penetrate your skin's surface deeply and astonishingly quickly, with never a greasy afterfeel. You'll see your skin grow softer and smoother almost the moment you soothe on the skin-loving liquid.

Oil of Olay, faithfully every morning, under makeup or to give your skin a moist environment. Again, faithfully, every night.

You'll find Oil of Olay at your drugstore. You may get the beautiful feeling that your skin is living in an ideal moisty, misty eternal spring.

Spring Beauty Secret

As the weather improves, you'll be more on the go. Be sure that Oil of Olay® travels with you everywhere, in your purse or suitcase.

Amador tutors help Alisal youngsters learn

PLEASANTON — Every day 18 students leave Amador High School and walk down the street — and they are not cutting class. They are tutors at Alisal Elementary School.

Tutors help the teacher by reading stories, helping if a child has a problem, correcting papers, recording grades, and sometimes they even take over a class, which is a big responsibility.

The students who are picked to tutor elementary school students must be able to relate to little kids and people around them.

For Tuesday, April 13, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19) This is not the time to bring up an old, unsettled domestic issue that is a source of irritation. Sparks could fly.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Try not to be short-tempered today with persons who don't do things your way. Tolerance will make everyone's job easier.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If a sharpie offers you something for nothing today look for the strings. They're sure to be there. Don't buy impulsively.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) In your haste to get a matter settled today you might move too fast for your own good and cause further complications.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Pressure tactics will produce undesirable results for you today if you employ them on others. Use your charm instead.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) If you lend something that you're fond of to the wrong person today, you may get it back in a sorry state.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Don't get your signals crossed today by being overly assertive in a situation that calls for diplomacy and tact.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Plan your moves carefully today or you may wind up painting yourself into a corner Rash actions will cause unnecessary headaches.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Normally you fit very comfortably into group activities, but today may be off day where being in a crowd could bug you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Your position with certain associates isn't quite as strong as you may think. Don't do anything today that might alienate them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Try not to make unreasonable requests of helpers or employes today. They'll be surprisingly hostile if you lean on them.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Someone you're very close to does not want you probing too deeply into his affairs today. Keep a discreet distance.

Partnerships will assume a greater importance to you this year. Select associates with care. The choices could be instrumental in helping to advance your goals.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Usually the defense tries to avoid giving declarer a ruff and a discard, but there are always exceptions.

If West had opened a diamond South would have had no play for his three-heart contract, but West opened his partner's suit.

South took dummy's ace cashed three trumps while winning the third lead in his hand led the 10 of diamonds and let it ride. East was in with the queen and stopped to figure things out. He cashed his king of clubs. Then he led a third club!

South could ruff in either hand and discard in the other, but this did him no good. East was bound to gain the lead twice more. The first time he would lead a fourth club. South would ruff with the one heart left to him — either his own or dummy's, but East would get in again and this time his fifth and last club would be the setting trick.

Ask the Jacobys

A Missouri reader says, "I opened with one heart: ♠ K Q J x x ♥ Q J x x x x ♦ - ♣ x x. My partner responded two diamonds. I tried two spades. He bid three diamonds. What should I have done next?"

Our correspondent had painted himself into a corner by opening a hand with only nine high-card points. If he passed at this stage, he might be missing a game — if he bid he might wind up taking an enormous penalty.

(Do you have a question for the experts? Write "Ask the Jacobys" care of this newspaper. The Jacobys will answer individual questions if stamped, self-addressed envelopes are enclosed. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)

NASL visit uninspiring

Mike Zampa, editor

A plane carrying the Seattle Sounders from the Pacific Northwest was late arriving in the Bay Area Sunday. The Sounders left their game on board.

The San Jose Earthquakes, meanwhile, are still searching excuses for a dismal, 0-0 tie in a North American Soccer League exhibition at Livermore Stadium.

It was the final tuneup for both teams before the league season begins this week. The Earthquakes donated part of the gate (no official word on the total but optimistic predictions that more than $1,000 was raised) to youth soccer. It was the only socially redeeming feature of the entire afternoon.

San Jose outshot Seattle, 24-12, but was totally frustrated around the net. The Sounders were so pitiful with the ball they would have required guided tours to reach Earthquake goal keeper Mike Hewitt.

The Quakes dominated every phase of the game. They should have, Seattle being just 1-7-2 in the exhibition season. But they also should have walked off with a victory.

"The ball was a little lively out there because of the bumpy pitch," said San Jose's newest import, John Rowlands. "But we still should have won 3-0, or 4-0. We dominated the game with our midfielders and forwards."

Rowlands, acquired from Seattle recently, was playing his first game in an Earthquakes' uniform. Placed in the starting defense, he was expected to engage Seattle's prize acquisition, forward Geoff Hurst, in a head-on-head battle.

Hurst, a top English offensive player who is usually classified with another scorer, countryman George Best, was ineffectual, however. It wasn't his fault, just that his new teammates had no concept of how to feed Geoff the ball.

"My job was to mark him, and I think I did that pretty well," smiled Rowlands. "He's still a good player, and you've got to shield him off the ball. I watched him close, but you've got to give him three or four yards or he'll get behind you."

Hurst managed that once Sunday, but Rowlands wasn't his victim.

Just five minutes from the finish, Hurst almost shattered an afternoon of ennui by collecting a pass near midfield and charging the San Jose net. Another new Quake defender, Miro Pavlovic, was sucked in by Geoff's fake near the net. Hurst fired on Hewitt but his rolling shot crossed the goal mouth and missed the left corner.

Hewitt had six saves for San Jose, as did Seattle's Tony Chursky. Mike wasn't forced to acrobatics, however, as was his counterpart.

Chursky was under siege most of the day. Only a combination of heroic saves and San Jose futility kept the ball out of the net.

Midfielder Davie Kemp sparkled in the midfield, and nearly provided the day's one moment of excitement. Late in the game he engaged Seattle's Tim Allen in a battle for a lose ball. Both collapsed near the sideline. An indignant Allen scooped up the ball and deftly bounced it off Kemp's head.

Kemp rose to his feet and pulled back a menacing right fist, but calmed down before unloading.

So thoroughly were the Earthquakes bottled up that even Crazy George, the perpetual motion super fan, was stopped. A Livermore policeman flagged down the Quakes' biggest booster who shot through traffic after the game in a blue sports car. Crazy didn't get a ticket, however. Obviously the policeman saw the game, and assumed that George had suffered enough.

Miller takes Granada

Bob Miller of Northgate High needed an eight - foot birdie putt on the last hole at Las Positas Golf Course yesterday for victory and a tournament record 72 at the third Granada Invitational in Livermore.

Just as important in Miller's scheme of things, though, he needed the bird to erase the memory of two botched opportunities that could have wrapped up the tournament title earlier in the day.

"I missed birdie putts like this at five and at 17," said Miller, spreading his hands about three feet apart. "They hit the hole and lipped out. I don't know what happened. But that's why I needed that eight footer."

With high Livermore winds whipping through his ears, Miller stroked in his winning putt at the par-five, 463-yard 18th hole to defeat Tom Straeter of Monte Vista by one shot.

Straeter missed a par putt at 18 that could have sent the tournament into overtime.

Miller's even - par round at 6,459 - yard Las Positas eclipsed the tournament record of 73, set last year by Dublin's Chris Cantalini.

Cantalini was on hand to defend his championship in this event yesterday, but limped off to a five-over 41 on the front nine, and finished the day with a 76, four-over par.

Jeff Hardy of College Park finished in third place, two shots behind Miller with a 74. San Ramon's Greg Allio was fourth at 75.

Monte Vista won the team title, its five golfers combining for a 387 total. That broke the tournament by six strokes. The old mark, a 393, was established last year by San Ramon.

Miller led Northgate to second place in the team standings at 396, and Dublin finished third with a 402 mark.

PU, SR in showdown

Pleasanton United and the San Ramon Superiors are bound for a showdown in the State Cup Soccer championships for girls a week from Saturday in Redwood City.

The Superiors won their semifinal match Saturday, 4-2, over the Concord Hurricanes, while United was thrashing the Shining Stars of Livermore, 5-0.

Deanna Galant scored three goals to vault San Ramon into the Cup championships. Peggy Baker had another.

Cindy Miller, who assisted Galant's first score, was dropped back to defense for much of the game, and her play was the key to the triumph. Sandy Warburton, Terry Sinnott and Kathy Williams also helped out with strong defense. P.J. Moore had four saves in goal.

United rode three Debbie Oxsen goals to its victory. Jean Pawloski and Cindy Aafedt also scored. Erin Healy had four saves. Top defensive players were Tammy Lawsen, Jean Borden, Robin McCole, Laurie Rogers and Kim Libert.

Pleasanton United reached the under-12 finals by edging the Dublin Shillelaghs, 3-2. Dublin held a 1-0 lead in the first half.

The under-10 Pleasanton United squad won its State Cup semifinal over Dublin United, 4-0. Taunya Biletnikoff had three goals for the winners, and Jenny Haney, one. Scotti Bascom, Trish Lemm and Jesse Brennan were key players.

They'll play the Panthers who blanked the Honeysuckles, 3-0. Michelle Nieto scored two goals to spark the Panthers, and Kristin Ferguson had one. Laurie Meyers came up with five saves. Robin Risso, Deena Mandle and Debbie Martin were defensive standouts. Tracy Tofaute and Sandy Cordes played well.

Terry hot as AV wins

Amador Valley High School, using the big bat of Jeff Terry, advanced to the winner's bracket of the Verl Thornock Baseball Tournament in San Lorenzo Monday with a 7-5 win over Castro Valley.

Terry accounted for six of Amador's seven runs by driving in four and scoring twice himself.

Two other valley teams, Foothill and San Ramon, did not fare as well. The young Falcons dropped a 10-5 decision to San Leandro while earlier San Ramon lost a tough 3-1 contest to San Lorenzo.

The Amador - Castro Valley contest was never too much in doubt as the Dons jumped out to a 2-0 first inning lead. Mike Garrigan walked and scored on Terry's triple to center. Mark Bevilacqua then brought Terry home with a base hit.

CV came back with two runs of its own in the second to briefly tie it up, but the Dons put it out of reach with a four - run third. Mike Krikorian walked and moved to second on a bunt sacrifice. A misplayed ball and a struck batter loaded up the bases and set the stage for Terry, who cleared the sacks with a three - run double. He later scored on Dan Straface's smash to right. In actuality, Straface's shot should have been a home run but he failed to touch third and had to go back.

The Dons added one more in the fifth with Mark Bevilacqua walking, stealingsecond, getting to third on a balk and finally scoring on Krikorian's single.

The San Ramon - San Lorenzo game was not exactly a barn - burner. Both teams had a poor day at the plate with only seven hits between them.

The Rebels got all their runs im the third inning with a walk, a single and a two - run double by Andy May and a misplayed ball.

San Ramon got its only tally in the fourth. John Arnaudon reached base on an error, stole second and came in on Paul Miller's single to right.

For Foothill, it was another day in what must seem like a long, long athletic season. The young Falcons (there are no seniors on the squad) are taking their share of lumps, but held their own for most of the game against San Leandro.

Foothill opened the scoring with three runs in the first. Barry Korton walked and Kirk Johnstone reached first on a dropped third strike. Danny Wilkes bounced to the pitcher who proceeded to throw the ball over the third baseman's head while trying for the force. Keith Suer brought another one in with a sacrifice fly and Jamie Ballas finished the scoring with a double.

San Leandro tied it up with two in the second and one in the fourth but Foothill came up with a run in the fifth to go back on top again.

Then the bottom dropped out for the Falcons as San Leandro erupted for seven runs in its half of the fifth. They never looked back.

All three teams resume action today with Foothill taking on Castro Valley at 11 a.m. and San Ramon meeting Pacific at 9 a.m, both in the consolation bracket. Amador moves into the winner's bracket and will face San Leandro at 3 p.m.

Three Mats make Stars

Steve Jaeger of Granada High, and the other running backs selected for the All-Star football game next August were the subjects in one of the most delicate decision making processes ever conducted by Alameda County coaches.

Jaeger, the rugged senior who picked up 771 yards this past season in regular season games, is one of four Livermore players selected to play the Contra Costa County stars August 14 at Diablo Valley College in the 11th All-Star Football Game.

The others are Granada teammates Ron Freeman, a tackle, and John Walden, the quarterback, and Livermore's Rich Palmer, also a quarterback.

Alameda County coaches Al Vermeil and John Brosnan said selection of the 30-man team was a difficult task. No where was it more of a chore than at running back, where Alameda County is loaded with talent.

Besides Jaeger, Alameda backs include Kevin Turner (1,241 yards) Sean Sullivan (1,153 yards) Jim Lane (1,216 yards) and Robbie Kahuanui (1,472 yards).

Those players have gobbled up more real estate than the robber barons of the 1800's.

But one talented youngster is missing from the rolls, and the oversight is galling people in the Hayward Area Athletic League.

Marina running back Bob Cardenas was not selected, though he scored 27 touchdowns for an HAAL record and rushed for 1,530 yards, another record.

Some critics have called his absence on the team the greatest injustice in the 11 years of the game. But both coaches defend the caliber of players selected over Cardenas.

One of those is Jaeger, who helped Granada to second place in the North Coast Section playoffs last season.

"He runs hard, and what a blocker," enthused Vermeil, who along with Brosnan viewed miles of film on all the players selected. "He's got good speed and plays fine defense, as well."

In fact, Jaeger's ability to play in the secondary could be the plus that won him a berth on the team.

Walden and Palmer are also secondary possibilities when the Alameda team reaches camp the beginning of August.

Freeman, an All-League tackle for Granada, was one of the pleasant surprises to Brosnan and Vermeil who screened a huge list of potential talent.

He was not a spectacular player like others we saw on film," said Vermeil. "He didn't jump off the screen at us. In fact, we had to look at him two or three times. But as you watch you notice that he makes the play he's supposed to every time. He consistently gets the job done. On every play you see his man go backwards. He may be the most consistent football player on the team."

One of the Alameda County quarterbacks will be Alan Regeir of Mt. Eden High, who passed for 1,220 yards and 15 touchdowns this past football season.

Not his game

Baltimore Colts tight end Raymond Chester chips an off-line approach in the Ninth Annual Daryle Lamonica Invitational Golf Tournament yesterday at Round Hill Country Club. Chester, who began his football career as Lamonica's teammate on the Oakland Raiders shot a weighty 103-18-85. Father Len Scannell, the famed "Golfing Priest," won the event with a net 71.

Sports in brief

Sentinels win U-18, 3-1

The Livermore Sentinels swept to the under-18 State Cup championship Sunday in San Jose, topping the Walnut Creek Saints, 3-1.

It was the 17th victory of soccer season for coach Mike Thompson's team, against a loss and a tie.

Two goals by Shannon Estil, and a third by Mike McKown, accounted for the margin of victory. Jim Lennon, Ted Wood and Estil all played roles in setting up goals.

Even Livermore goalie Pete Howard set up a score when his booming kick broke Estil free behind the Walnut Creek defense.

"We weren't playing up to our normal standard on defense," said Thompson, "but the balance of our team helped us. We don't have any stars, just a lot of guys pulling for each other."

Dave D'Ambra, Bob Foster and Wes Settle were all key figures for the State Cup champs.

The Sentinels jumped to a 3-0 lead early in the second half, then eased off their pressure.

They play in the National Challenge Cup semifinals next Saturday on the Peninsula.

Par takes Ping

Connie Chillemi of Orlando, Florida, finished with a 72 to take the lead in the first round of the Castlewood Group Fore Ping Classic yesterday at Castlewood.

The Castlewood tourney is one of the 11 scheduled tourneys for this first - ever women's mini - tour series. The 16 ladies will play again at 1:00 p.m. on today and also at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday on the Hill Course for a total purse of $1,500.

Signa Quandt, of St. Petersburg, Florida, shot a 79 while Sue Parker of London, who won the Group Fore tourney at Lake Chabot Muny last week, finished with an 82.

Livermore wins

Livermore won the championship of the Nazarene Church Southwest Regional Basketball Tournament at Pt. Loma College in San Diego last weekend, topping Los Angeles in the finals, 77-64.

Two of the Livermore players, Ted Wood and Joey Wujek were named to the all - tournament for the three - day affair.

In the second game he scored 24 points, hitting all 11 of his shots from the floor, in a 76-71 win over Sacramento.

The championship triumph was a team affair. Wujek led everyone with 23 points. Wood followed with 20. Curt Groth contributed 13 for the winners, and Tim Jenkins scored 12.

LBC in Reno

Livermore Boxing Club will send two young fighters to the Junior Olympic Championships this month in Reno.

Ten - year old Ron Garcia, and brother Tim, 13, drew byes in zone competition for the Olympics last weekend in Fremont, and automatically advance into the Reno finals April 24-25.

Livermore Boxing Club is also announcing a 14-fight exhibition card Saturday, April 24, 7 p.m., at Livermore High School gym.

Tickets are $2 for adults, $1.50 for youngsters, and are available by phone at 447-9523.

Headlining the card is top amateur welterweight Johnny Staggs of Stockton.

Cal advances in MV

A strong pitching performance enabled California High School to outlast Memorial, 5-2, in an opening round game of the Mission Valley Baseball Tournament yesterday in Fremont.

Livermore, the other EBAL school entered, fell 3-2 to James Logan.

The elder Cary went the first eight innings for the Grizzlies, striking out seven, as the teams played even until a three-run Cal outburst in the ninth.

After Memorial jumped to a 1-0 first inning lead and held it for most of the game, Cal tied it in the last of the sixth when Chuck Cary hit a sacrifice fly to score Roger Hurlow from third.

The following inning, the Grizzlies got the lead as Tyler Laurie, moving to third on a ground ball, drew a wild throw, enabling him to score.

But Memorial tied it in the last half of the inning, sending the game into extra innings. Only a fine relay play from left fielder Mike Tye through shortstop Larry Walters to Hurlow at the plate prevented a game - winning home run by the Memorial lead - off batter.

California scored its winning runs in the ninth. With one out and the bases loaded, junior varsity graduate Doug Smith singled up the middle to drive in Dan Nelson Hurlow added a pair of insurance runs with a blow off the shortstops glove.

Knowledge seekers from Italy

Thirty-five Milan students to visit Pleasanton

Thirty - five high school and college students from Milan, Italy will be visiting the Pleasanton area from July 29 to August 19.

Their ages are from 15 to 23.

The students who come to the United States on programs originated by the Foreign Study League come as students and not as tourists.

Their goal is to learn more about the United States and its people. These students have chosen to come to California and the Bay Area, they have also chosen to come to the U.S. in the year of the Bicentennial celebrations.

Their program offers the student cultural exposure, a chance to improve spoken and written English, and an opportunity to become exposed to a wide variety of local activities.

Host families are asked to provide room and board to these students from July 30 to August 18, about 20 days. Host families receive no financial reward for their hospitality so that the cost of the program can be kept at a level which average foreign students can afford.

Larry R. Moore, foreign language teacher at Amador Valley High School, is the coordinator of the program. He has worked with the Foreign Study League for four years on outbound programs taking local students to Europe where they studied various cultures and peoples.

Any families who are genuinely interested in housing an Italian student from July 30 to August 18 should contact Moore at 447-6988 (evenings) or 846-2818 (days), when school is in session.
